

6年生 「春はあけぼの」

Things to prepare Textbook pages 22-24

◎ Look for the words to enter in the textbook. (ア has the same words.)

〈Work title〉 “Spring is Akebono” is written on a work called is Sei-Syounagon

〈Author〉 The author of

〈 period 〉 was written

〈 Content 〉 wrote a sentence about what she saw, heard, and felt

◎

◎ First, let's read “Spring”. Where there is (), read().

Point of reading aloud!

- ① It's written in old language, so read it many times until you get used to it.
- ② It becomes easier to read if you separate the areas where you cut one opponent.
- ③ When you get used to it, let's read it with a rhythm!

春はあけぼの。

(ヨウヨウ)

(ワ)

やうやう 白くなりゆく 山ぎは、 すこしあかりて

紫だちたる 雲の 細くたなびきたる。

(1) Read aloud and write down what you have noticed.

Points to think about!

- ① This work was written a long time ago.
- ② Let's read and think about what is written in the current language on page 23.