

「すみれとあり②」

Things to prepare Textbook pages 41-49 Kanji drill

Did you read it better than before? Is it okay to read Kanji?

① Read aloud pages 42 to 46 of the textbook.

② Let's review the last time. Where do violet flowers bloom? Read page 42 of the textbook and write three.

--	--	--

③ Where to go Do step 1(2) on page 47.

--

④ In a sentence the explains something, such as "Violet and There", you will see a question sentence like this.

④ Answer the following questions while reading page 43 of the textbook.

(1) What happens to the violet after it blooms?

--

(2) What is actually done?

--

(3) What happens in sunny day?

--

(4) What happens after (3) happens?

--

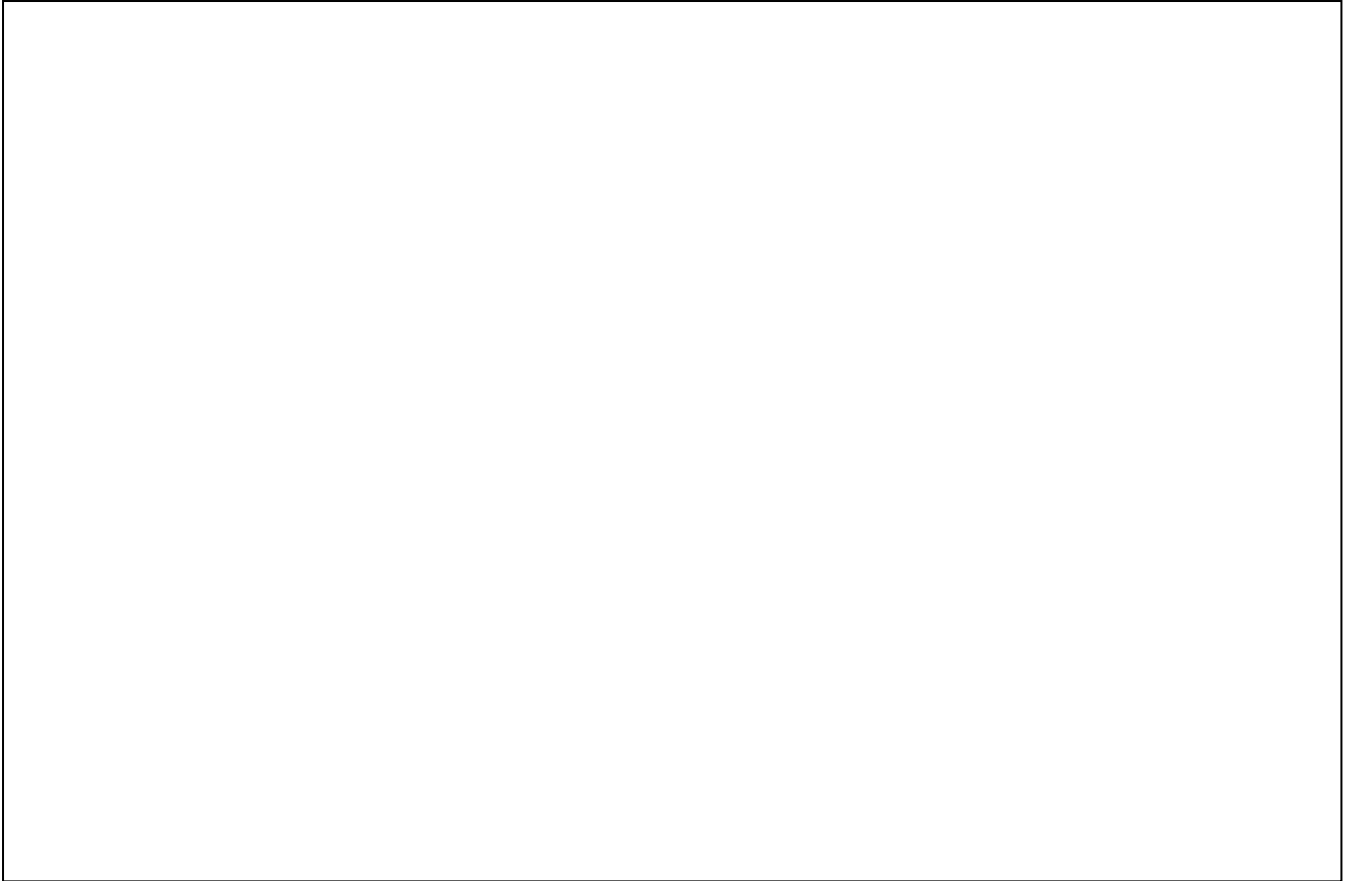

(5) What happens after (4)?

--

⑤ Summarize what will happen to the violet after it blooms in the words of yourself.

*Look at the photo on page 43 of the textbook.

*You can add pictures to the words and draw pictures or use arrows.

If it's difficult, let's use what you wrote in ④

⑥ Let's do the Kanji drill().

⑦ Look back on today's study.

*Write your hard work and interesting things.

